Vivian Luk

Designer Vivian Luk's training in art, dance, music and drama began at an early age, instilling in her a passion for artistic forms and fashion. Luk attended the prestigious Parsons the New School for Design, and worked at Vera Wang's bridal-and-celebrity made-to-order department during her time in New York. "My designs are for women who appreciate works of art. They're dreamy yet modern," says Luk. With lush draping and highly embellished details, gowns by Vivian Luk reveal the subtle sensuality of glamour and femininity.
